Purpose

"Hong Kong Film Industry Information 2023" is a compilation of information on film industry commissioned by the Cultural and Creative Industries Development Agency (formerly known as Create Hong Kong) and conducted by the Hong Kong Motion Picture Industry Association Ltd. (hereinafter referred to as "Compilation"). The Compilation records information related to the Hong Kong film industry for 2023, with scope of information covering films that started shooting, released locally, distributed overseas, awards received, new directors and performers joining the industry in this year, as well as number of industry employees in the industry. The purpose of this information collection exercise is to provide information on film industry and market information for reference of the members on film industry, enabling them to grasp the performance of the Hong Kong film market and the overall situation of the industry in the year. The annual reporting of the information also facilitates members of the industry to understand the annual changes and development of Hong Kong films.

Definition

In this Compilation, "Hong Kong Film" is defined as follows:

- A. All production companies are Hong Kong incorporated companies, the relevant films are Hong Kong films; or (in the case that not all the production companies are Hong Kong incorporated companies, please refer to requirements in point B below).
- B. The film must fulfil both of the following two requirements:
 - 1. at least one of the production companies is a Hong Kong incorporated company; and
 - 2. of the following five valid posts, 50% or more of the posts shall be held by Hong Kong permanent residents: producer, director, screenwriter, leading actor and leading actress.

"Valid post" means a post to be held by a person, for example, the leading actor and actress in a documentary about animals are not valid posts. If there is also no screenwriter, either the director or the producer being a Hong Kong permanent resident satisfies the requirement. In general, if all the five posts are valid posts, three of which need to be held by Hong Kong permanent residents.

Hong Kong films satisfying the definition in point A are referred to as "Hong Kong productions". Hong Kong films satisfying the definition in point B are referred to as "Co-productions".

In addition, the length of the relevant films shall be 60 minutes or above, and the films must be officially released in Hong Kong theatres (the opening date of the film refers to that of the date of official release, excluding midnight and preview screenings) and the sale of tickets must be open to the public.

"Chinese-language films" (or "Chinese films") mainly refers to films produced in Chinese language (Putonghua or Mandarin). Broadly speaking, films produced in Hong Kong, the Mainland, Taiwan or Macau and in Chinese or in Mainland dialect are referred to as Chinese films.

"Chinese films" mentioned in this Compilation refers generally to films produced in Chinese or Mainland dialect and that Hong Kong is not involved in the production.

"Foreign-language films" refers to films not produced in Chinese or Mainland dialect and that Hong Kong is not involved in the production.

C Hong Kong Films that Started Shooting in 2023

I. Information Collection Method

There is no system of pre-censorship or mechanism for registration for filming by the Hong Kong film industry, the searching and recording of film production projects started during the previous year were mainly conducted through the following two ways:

- (1) dispatching questionnaires to local film companies, inquiring the status of their film productions, such as whether there had been any films that started shooting in 2023;
- (2) checking news coverages on films that started shooting from newspapers, online media, etc., and verifying with respective film companies.

Note: The data concerned are provided for reference only, and they are not the final version, all data including the film titles and cooperation units shall be subject to those provided in the final releases.

I Manpower Resources of Hong Kong Film Industry in 2023

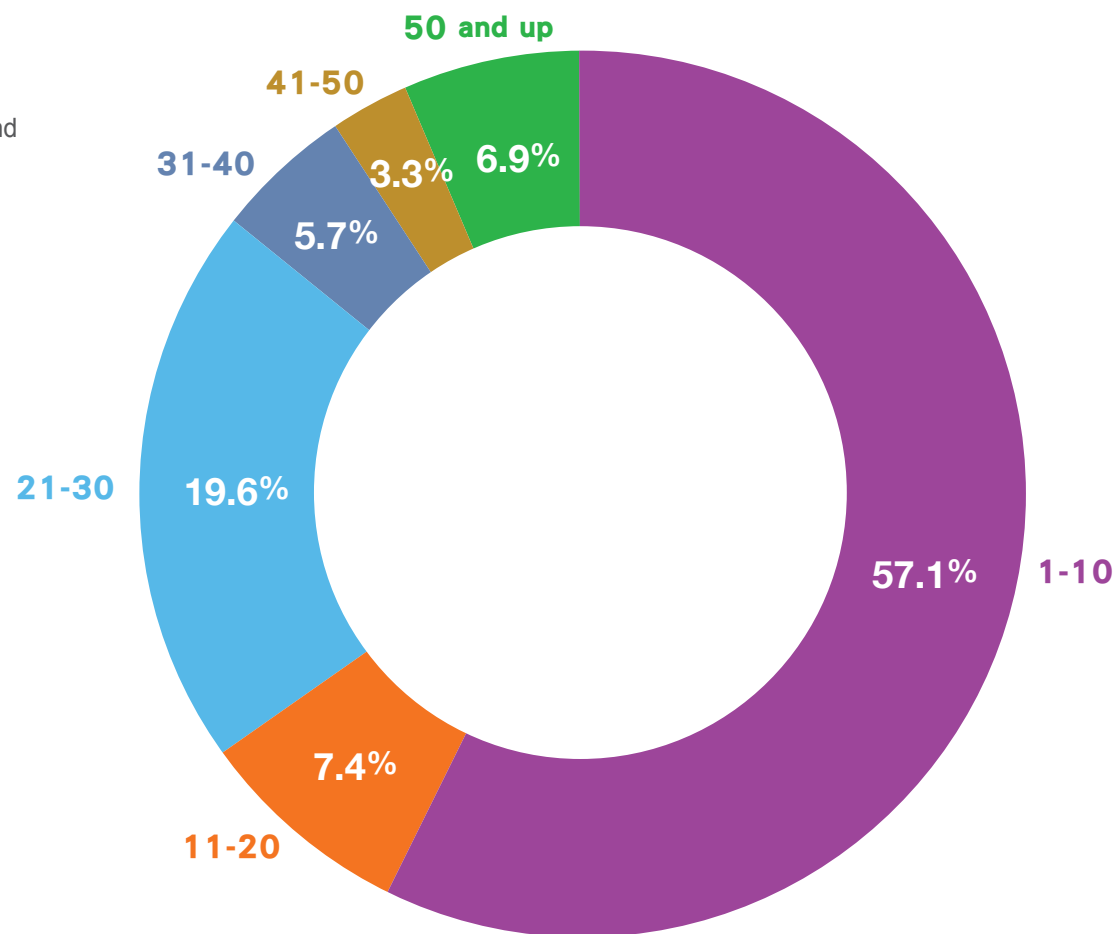

The data collection of manpower resources of Hong Kong film industry was conducted through questionnaire issued to the following film-related organisations/companies:

- (1) inquiring each film company about their number of employees and scope of business;
- (2) inquiring each film industry association (e.g. Hong Kong Film Directors' Guild, Hong Kong Chamber of Films, Hong Kong Theatres Association and Hong Kong Motion Picture Industry Association) about their number of members and including them in the production headcount; and
- (3) inquiring the 389 companies engaged in film and video production and distribution that are listed in the "Production Directory" of the Cultural and Creative Industries Development Agency, with a total of 245 responded.

According to the results of the questionnaire, the number of employees working in the film companies were:

- | | | |
|-------|---------------------|----------------------|
| (i) | 1-10 employees | Total: 140 companies |

Chart 6 Hong Kong Film Companies* - Distribution of Scope of Business#

*389 questionnaires issued, with a total of 245 returned from the Hong Kong film companies.

#One company may engage in more than one type of business.

According to the information provided by 26 film industry organisations (refer to Appendix 2: Hong Kong Film Industry Organisations and Related Information), there were a total of 12 832 registration of individual members, 256 company members and 60 cinema members. (The number of registration and the number of company members above are the sum of the registered members of 26 organisations. As Hong Kong film practitioners and companies are often engaged in more than one scope of film production, the same person or the same company may have multiple registrations as a member of different industry organisations. Please refer to Appendix 2 for details.)
